Privacy

At present, personal information is only collected when you use e-mail to contact us. If you choose to provide us with personal information by sending an e-mail, we will use that information to respond to your message. Any personal information that we collect as a result of an e-mail exchange will be securely stored and will not be shared with anyone outside of the agency unless required by law.

An e-mail exchange does not in itself establish a professional relationship between you and Community Action Council of Howard County. No duty-of-care or responsibility is assumed by Community Action Council staff solely through e-mail exchanges.

If your e-mail communication explicitly or implicitly asks for a response, we will assume that we may reply to the e-mail address from which it was sent unless otherwise specified. You assume responsibility for any accidental disclosures of personal information as a result of others having access to your e-mail account, including an employer. You should be aware that employers are entitled to review office e-mail and may do so.

If you are a currently a client of Community Action Council, you may use e-mail as a convenience for communicating with billing staff. However, we cannot guarantee that your e-mail will not be intercepted during transmission by a third-party. If you choose to provide personal health information via e-mail, we will hold it confidential per HIPAA guidelines. A copy of e-mail exchanges with Community Action Council containing personal health information will be printed and stored in client's paper files.

Regardless of whether you are a client, former client, or general member of the public, do not use e-mail to contact us in the event of an emergency or crisis. Instead, contact our office at 410-313-6440 during business hours.

If you choose to e-mail with comments, suggestions, or feedback regarding our site or our services, such information will be held as non-confidential to be used by Community Action Council for any purpose with the proviso that any personal information attached (such as name or e-mail address) will be stripped before use.
